Fall Book Study

An Anglican Explores The Faith by Rev. Canon Keith Osborne

This Fall we will be studying An Anglican Explores The Faith, a book written by our very own Rev. Canon Keith Osborne.

The book explores the important issues of the Faith, such as living in one's God given image, embracing one's mortality and the wonder of grace, and discovering a practical means of manifesting the Faith through a lifestyle given over to God.

Study groups will meet on Wednesdays (2PM or 7PM) starting on September 9th and concluding on October 28th.

If you are interested in attending, please sign up on the sheets near the kitchen, indicating which group you would like to join and whether you would like a book ordered for you through the Church office (cost of $20).

Gatherings/Programs on Summer Break

The following Gatherings/Programs are on a brief hiatus for the summer months:

Camp Medley has launched A Place Where Everyone Belongs, a matching gift campaign supporting the new Accessible Pool and Facilities Project. Thanks to the generosity of the J.T. Clark Family Foundation, gifts designated to the project will help unlock a $375,000 matching gift, creating an opportunity to add $750,000 toward this important project.

The new accessible pool will help ensure Camp Medley continues to welcome children, youth, families, seniors, churches, volunteers, and the wider community for generations to come.

To learn more or to make a gift, please visit

You are also welcome to donate to Camp Medley's Pool project through St. John's Church – please mark donations as for 'Camp Medley's Pool'.
